ON THE COVER

The Raising of Lazarus (c. 1630–1632)

Rembrandt Harmensz. van Rijn (1606–1669)

“Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, ‘Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days.’ Jesus said to her, ‘Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?’ So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, ‘Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me.’ When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, ‘Lazarus, come out!’ The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, ‘Unbind him, and let him go.’”

St. James

1 Thou art the Way, to thee a-lone from sin and death we flee;
2 Thou art the Truth, thy word a-lone true wis-dom can im-part;
3 Thou art the Life, the rend-ing tomb pro-claims thy con-quer-ing arm;
4 Thou art the Way, the Truth, the Life: grant us that way to know, and all who would the Fa-ther seek, must seek him, Lord, by thee.
thou on-ly canst in-form the mind and pu-ri-fy the heart.
and those who put their trust in thee nor death nor hell shall harm.
that truth to keep, that life to win, whose joys e-ter-nal flow.

FIRST READING Ezekiel 37:1-14 — Please be seated

A Reading from the Book of Ezekiel

The hand of the LORD came upon me, and he brought me out by the spirit of the LORD and set me down in the middle of a valley; it was full of bones. He led me all around them; there were very many lying in the valley, and they were very dry. He said to me, “Mortal, can these bones live?” I answered, “O LORD GOD, you know.” Then he said to me, “Prophecy to these bones, and say to them: O dry bones, hear the word of the LORD. Thus says the LORD GOD to these bones: I will cause breath to enter you, and you shall live. I will lay sinews on you, and will cause flesh to come upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and you shall live; and you shall know that I am the LORD.”

So I prophesied as I had been commanded; and as I prophesied, suddenly there was a noise, a rattling, and the bones came together, bone to its bone. I looked, and there were sinews on them, and flesh had come upon them, and skin had covered them; but there was no breath in them. Then he said to me, “Prophecy to the breath, prophesy, mortal, and say to the breath: Thus says the LORD GOD: Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live.” I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood on their feet, a vast multitude.

Then he said to me, “Mortal, these bones are the whole house of Israel. They say, ‘Our bones are dried up, and our hope is lost; we are cut off completely.’ Therefore prophesy, and say to them, Thus says the LORD GOD: I am going to open your graves, and bring you up from your graves, O my people; and I will bring you back to the land of Israel. And you shall know that I am the LORD, when I open your graves, and bring you up from your graves, O my people. I will put my spirit within you, and you shall live, and I will place you on your own soil; then you shall know that I, the LORD, have spoken and will act,” says the LORD.

The Word of the LORD.

All: Thanks be to God.

THE PSALM Psalm 130 — Sung by the choir

- 1 Out of the depths have I called to you, O LORD;
Lord, hear my voice; *
let your ears consider well the voice of my supplication.
- 2 If you, LORD, were to note what is done amiss, *
O Lord, who could stand?
- 3 For there is forgiveness with you; *
therefore you shall be feared.
- 4 I wait for the LORD; my soul waits for him; *
in his word is my hope.
- 5 My soul waits for the LORD,
more than watchmen for the morning, *
more than watchmen for the morning.
- 6 O Israel, wait for the LORD, *
for with the LORD there is mercy;
- 7 With him there is plenteous redemption, *
and he shall redeem Israel from all their sins.

SECOND READING Romans 8:6-11

A Reading from Paul's Letter to the Romans

To set the mind on the flesh is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace. For this reason the mind that is set on the flesh is hostile to God; it does not submit to God's law~ indeed it cannot, and those who are in the flesh cannot please God.

But you are not in the flesh; you are in the Spirit, since the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. But if Christ is in you, though the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness. If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also through his Spirit that dwells in you.

The Word of the LORD.

All: Thanks be to God.

THE HOLY GOSPEL John 11:1–45

The LORD be with you.

All: And with thy spirit.

+The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

All: Glory be to thee, O LORD.

Now a certain man was ill, Lazarus of Bethany, the village of Mary and her sister Martha. Mary was the one who anointed the Lord with perfume and wiped his feet with her hair; her brother Lazarus was ill. So the sisters sent a message to Jesus, “Lord, he whom you love is ill.” But when Jesus heard it, he said, “This illness does not lead to death; rather it is for God’s glory, so that the Son of God may be glorified through it.” Accordingly, though Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus, after having heard that Lazarus was ill, he stayed two days longer in the place where he was.

Then after this he said to the disciples, “Let us go to Judea again.” The disciples said to him, “Rabbi, the Jews were just now trying to stone you, and are you going there again?” Jesus answered, “Are there not twelve hours of daylight? Those who walk during the day do not stumble, because they see the light of this world. But those who walk at night stumble, because the light is not in them.” After saying this, he told them, “Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but I am going there to awaken him.” The disciples said to him, “Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will be all right.” Jesus, however, had been speaking about his death, but they thought that he was referring merely to sleep.

Then Jesus told them plainly, "Lazarus is dead. For your sake I am glad I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him." Thomas, who was called the Twin, said to his fellow disciples, "Let us also go, that we may die with him."

When Jesus arrived, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb four days. Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, some two miles away, and many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary to console them about their brother. When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went and met him, while Mary stayed at home. Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. But even now I know that God will give you whatever you ask of him." Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again." Martha said to him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day." Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?" She said to him, "Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, the one coming into the world."

When she had said this, she went back and called her sister Mary, and told her privately, "The Teacher is here and is calling for you." And when she heard it, she got up quickly and went to him. Now Jesus had not yet come to the village, but was still at the place where Martha had met him. The Jews who were with her in the house, consoling her, saw Mary get up quickly and go out. They followed her because they thought that she was going to the tomb to weep there. When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Lord, come and see." Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, "See how he loved him!" But some of them said, "Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?"

Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, "Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days." Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?" So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, "Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me." When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Unbind him, and let him go."

Many of the Jews therefore, who had come with Mary and had seen what Jesus did, believed in him.

The Gospel of the LORD.

All: Praise be to thee, O Christ.

NICENE CREED (Hymnal #759) — Please stand

I believe in one God,

All sing: the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,

and of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the only-begotten Son of God,
begotten of his Father before all worlds,
God of God, Light of Light,
very God of very God,
begotten, not made,
being of one substance with the Father;
by whom all things were made;
who for us men and for our salvation
came down from heaven,

(Kneel for next 3 lines)

*and was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary,
and was made man;*

and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered and was buried;
and the third day he rose again according to the Scriptures,
and ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of the Father;
and he shall come again, with glory,
to judge both the quick and the dead;
whose kingdom shall have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Ghost, the LORD, and Giver of Life,
who proceedeth from the Father and the Son;
who with the Father and the Son together is worshipped and glorified;
Who spake by the Prophets.

And I believe one Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church;
I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins;
and I look for the resurrection of the dead,
+ and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The melody is simple and hymn-like, with a steady rhythm. The piano accompaniment provides a harmonic foundation with chords and moving lines in both hands.

LITURGY OF THE HOLY EUCHARIST — Please stand

Pray Brethren,
that this my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God,
the Almighty Father.

All: May the LORD receive the sacrifice at thy hands,
to the praise and glory of His Name,
to our benefit and that of all His Holy Church.

EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

The LORD be with you.

All: And with thy spirit.

Lift up your hearts.

All: We lift them up unto the LORD.

Let us give thanks unto our LORD God.

All: It is meet and right so to do.

It is very meet, right, and our bounden duty, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto thee, O LORD, Holy Father, Almighty, everlasting God.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord; who was tempted in every way as we are, yet did not sin. By his grace we are able to triumph over every evil, and to live no longer for ourselves alone, but for him who died for us and rose again.

Therefore with Angels and Archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious Name; evermore praising thee, and saying:

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION — Please kneel

All glory be to thee, O LORD our God, for that thou didst create heaven and earth, and didst make us in thine own image; and, of thy tender mercy, didst give thine only Son Jesus Christ to take our nature upon him, and to suffer death upon the cross for our redemption. He made there a full and perfect sacrifice for the whole world; and did institute, and in his holy Gospel command us to continue, a perpetual memory of that his precious death and sacrifice, until his coming again.

At the following words concerning the bread, the Celebrant is to hold it, or lay a hand upon it; and at the words concerning the cup, to hold or place a hand upon the cup and any other vessel containing wine to be consecrated.

For in the night in which he was betrayed, he took bread; and when he had given thanks to thee, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, “Take, eat, this is my Body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.”

Likewise, after supper, he took the cup; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, “Drink this, all of you; for this is my Blood of the New Covenant, which is shed for you, and for many, for the remission of sins. Do this, as oft as ye shall drink it, in remembrance of me.”

Wherefore, O LORD and heavenly Father, we thy people do celebrate and make, with these thy holy gifts which we now offer unto thee, the memorial thy Son hath commanded us to make; having in remembrance his blessed passion and precious death, his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension; and looking for his coming again with power and great glory.

And we most humbly beseech thee, O merciful Father, to hear us, and, with thy Word and Holy Spirit, to bless and sanctify these gifts of bread and wine, that they may be unto us the Body and Blood of thy dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ.

And we earnestly desire thy fatherly goodness to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, whereby we offer and present unto thee, O LORD, our selves, our souls and bodies. Grant, we beseech thee, that all who partake of this Holy Communion may worthily receive the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son Jesus Christ, and be filled with thy grace and heavenly benediction; + and also that we and all thy whole Church may be made one body with him, that he may dwell in us, and we in him; through the same Jesus Christ our LORD;

By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Ghost all honor and glory be unto thee, O Father Almighty, world without end.

All: Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER (Hymnal #722)

And now, as our Savior Christ hath taught us, we are bold to say:

All sing:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. *Amen.

in the mystical body of Thy Son,
the blessed company of all faithful people;

And are also heirs, through hope,
of Thy everlasting kingdom.

And we humbly beseech Thee, O heavenly Father,
so to assist us with Thy grace,
that we may continue in that Holy fellowship,
and do all such good works as Thou hast prepared for us to walk in;

Through Jesus Christ our Lord,
to whom, with Thee and the Holy Ghost,
be all honor and glory,
world without end. Amen.

PRAYER OVER THE PEOPLE AND BENEDICTION

Bow down before the LORD.

Grant, most merciful Lord, to your faithful people pardon and peace, that they may be cleansed from all their sins, and serve you with a quiet mind; through, Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

And the blessing of God Almighty, + the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you, and remain with you always.

All: Amen.

NOTICES — Please be seated

Birthday Prayer

Many happy returns of the day of thy birth,
May seasons of joy be given.
May God in his mercy prepare you on earth
For a beautiful birthday in Heaven. Amen.

Anniversary Prayer

O God, you have so consecrated the covenant of marriage that in it is represented the spiritual unity between Christ and his Church: Send therefore your blessing upon these your servants, that they may love, honor, and cherish each other in faithfulness and patience, in wisdom and true godliness, that their home may be a haven of blessing and peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE ANGELUS — Please stand

The Angel of the LORD brought the tidings to Mary:

All: And she conceived by the Holy Ghost.

Hail Mary, full of grace, the LORD is with thee.

Blessed art thou amongst women,

and blessed is the fruit of thy womb Jesus.

Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners,

now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

Behold the handmaid of the LORD:

All: Be it unto me according to thy word.

The Hail Mary is repeated.

And the Word was made flesh.

All: And dwelt among us.

The Hail Mary is repeated.

Pray for us, O holy Mother of God.

All: That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray.

We beseech thee O LORD, pour thy grace into our hearts: That as we have known the incarnation of thy son Jesus Christ by the message of an angel, so by His cross and passion + we may be brought to the glory of His resurrection. Through the same Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

DISMISSAL

Let us go forth in the name of Christ.

All: Thanks be to God.

A LENTEN INVITATION: CHRISTIAN FORMATION FOR ADULTS

The Screwtape Letters, by C.S. Lewis

“Join us this Lent in a journey through one of the most engaging Christian books ever written... A book that doesn’t just tell you what temptation is – it shows you how it works.”

Each letter opens a window into the spiritual life that’s accessible, reflective, and deeply pertinent in our day-to-day living.

This study isn’t just about “demons and temptation” – it’s really about understanding our hearts and how God pursues us even in the ordinary moments.

Why The Screwtape Letters Matters

The Screwtape Letters is a brilliantly written Christian classic in which C.S. Lewis lets a senior demon teach a junior tempter how to lure a human away from the Enemy – that’s God. Through satire and reversal, Lewis invites us to see spiritual struggle from a fresh, often humorous angle.

Rather than a typical sermon or theological treatise, it’s a set of 31 fictional letters full of psychological insight, moral challenge, and sharp spiritual wisdom – cleverly disguised as advice from Hell’s perspective.

Lewis’ use of irony – calling God “the Enemy” and demons’ tactics wise counsel – helps us recognize frequently overlooked temptations: complacency, pride, distraction, and subtle self-deception.

PARISH NOTICES

A Little Flavor from the Book

In his letters, Screwtape urges Wormwood to keep the Patient focused on vanity, boredom, fear, and self-absorption – because the daily battles are the ones that matter most.

One of the most quoted insights is:

“The safest road to Hell is the gradual one – the gentle slope, soft underfoot, without sudden turnings, without milestones...”

It gets you thinking about how small choices shape your spiritual life

Who Is This For?

- Curious seekers who want to understand spiritual temptation in a new way,
- Long-time believers who crave fresh reflection during Lent,
- Anyone who’s ever wondered why everyday life sometimes feels spiritually tricky.

Study Format Snapshot

We’ll meet on the second and fourth Sunday of each month in the library at 12:00 PM during Lent and beyond, continuing on Sunday, March 22nd—today! Each session will explore a set of 3 chapters together – mixing conversation, prayer, and insight.

Parish News & Notes

No prior C.S. Lewis familiarity is required – just an open heart and a desire to grow in faith!

(For those of you who do not attend in person regularly, but would like to join us in the study sessions, there is an opportunity to join us via Zoom; find the link to join on the first few pages of the Parish Notices (p. 27)).

IN MEMORY OF ANN DIERKS

Ann Dierks, a long time member of All Saints', passed away March 9, 2026. Ann & Dean were active members of All Saints' from the mid 50's until their move to Palm Desert in the early 2000's. PALMS & EASTER LILIES:

Your help is needed to enhance our church with palms and flowers for Palm Sunday and Easter!

Easter Sunday is on April 5th! We are offering an opportunity for parishioners to sponsor memorial Easter lilies, with which we will decorate the High Altar and Sanctuary for Easter!

This year, the cost of each lily/ sponsorship will be $30. Forms for sponsorship can be found at the transept table and the narthex table, and payment is due at the time of the order (which can be paid by cash or check). In order for purchases to be made in a timely manner for Easter, forms must be submitted to the parish office, or placed on the offertory plate by Sunday, March 29th, or at the very latest, the 30th, the Monday after.

On Saturday, March 28th, help is needed in decorating our courtyard and church for Palm Sunday! We will be gathering in the courtyard at 9:00 AM. Bring gloves and clippers! There are usually 8 to 10 people needed and will by God's grace participate.

Palm Sunday is even more special for its need of Palm branches of all sizes. Some palm branches will come from the palm trees around the church, but they will still have to be cleaned. If you cannot stay to assist with the placement and securing of palms, it would also be VERY helpful if you just have palm branches that you can cut, bring, and drop off. These need to be delivered on Friday, March 27; we can also pick them up if you are unable to deliver them.

On Holy Saturday, April 4th, gather around at 9:00 AM and help decorate the church by helping others in arranging Easter flowers and lilies for Easter Sunday. There are always varied jobs to do besides arranging flowers, too!

All ages and abilities are welcome!

If you have any questions, please contact Sue Johnston-Eaton at (619) 840-0629.

EDWARD HECK APPRECIATION

Edward has faithfully served All Saints' for 50 years. Throughout these years, he has been an acolyte, reader, treasurer, vestry member, member of the calling committee, and a lay eucharistic visitor, not to mention a helper in many other capacities!

We'd like for you to join us in the Parish Hall, celebrating Ed for his many selfless and faithful contributions toward All Saints' Church!

OUR STEWARDSHIP

Prayer, scripture reading, self-examination, and almsgiving (offerings above and beyond our pledges to the parish) are among the spiritual disciplines that Father Carlos recommends for Lent. Traditionally, Lenten almsgiving is intended primarily to support those in need. In that spirit the Vestry has decided that this year's designated Lenten and Easter offerings will be allocated for the use of our parish Social Action Committee (SAC). Special envelopes marked "Lenten and Easter offerings" are available in the church for those who wish to present alms during Lent.

SOCIAL ACTION UPDATE

We only have one more week of Lent, plus Holy Week, to examine our lives in the light of repentance. If we can slow down the outside world for a bit, and look at our inside world more closely, we may be able to better see those in need of our help. We can act as Jesus would have acted toward those in need of shelter, food, safety - give of ourselves including through this Social Action Committee.

Your help is needed by providing new sweatpants in sizes M, L, XL for homeless patients at the Scripps-Mercy ER.

Any donation of non-perishable foods put in the wagon for our local food banks is wonderful.

Any financial donation earmarked for SAC is always welcome also.

Thank you for manifesting Jesus to the benefit of our less fortunate neighbors! Your faithful generosity is always appreciated . . .

EUCCHARISTIC VISITOR MINISTRY

We are in need of more Lay Eucharistic Visitors (LEVs)! Under Father Carlos, the ministry of LEV has been revived at All Saints' Church. They go out after Sunday Mass and Tuesday Mass, doing no more than two visits a day. There are currently only three LEVs but many more parishioners in need of their ministry. We would like to serve more of our shut-ins in a timely manner. Help would be greatly appreciated!

Eucharistic Visitors are members of the congregation who are licensed by the Bishop to take the Blessed Sacrament "in a timely manner" to those who are unable to attend a regularly scheduled celebration of the Holy Eucharist in the church or chapel.

If you would like to add a name to the list of those to be visited, please contact Fr. Carlos or Ed Heck:
