ALL SAINTS’ EPISCOPAL CHURCH
San Diego, California

The Nineteenth Sunday after Pentecost

October 3rd, 2021
10:00 AM | Mass
Welcome to All Saints’ Mass in our church or by live-stream, especially if you are a newcomer or visitor! Please help us to get to know you by introducing yourself to our rector, Fr. Carlos, if you are here in person.

We hope that you will find in this bulletin everything you need to make your link to our community a joyful one. In it you will find the text for all of the Mass prayers and readings.

The symbol + indicates when to make the sign of the Cross. It is also customary to make a discreet bow at the name of Jesus.

On the cover: Sometimes used as a symbol for Christian marriage: Two wedding rings interlinked with the Greek letters chi (X) and rho (P)—the first two letters in the Greek word for "Christ"

THE FLOWERS ON THE HIGH ALTAR are offered to the GLORY OF GOD
ALL SAINTS' MISSION STATEMENT

"Our mission is to bring the good news of Jesus Christ's love to our entire community through traditional Anglo-Catholic worship, fellowship, outreach, and Christian formation."

OUR VISION

“We strive to be a haven of healing, reconciliation, joy and peace in service to our wider community and beyond, so that our example in prayer and practice may reflect Christ’s love for us all.”

OUR CORE VALUES:

· Welcoming strangers like old friends
· Embracing the Anglo-Catholic tradition
· Being dependable members of a caring community
· Respecting each other's differences
· Being faithful stewards of God's gifts
· Remembering that God loves everyone unconditionally

CELEBRANT: Fr. Carlos E. Expósito, Rector

MASS SETTING: Healey Willan

Prelude on “Abbot’s Leigh”

David Lasky
Hymn to Joy

Words: Henry Van Dyke (1852-1933)
Music: Hymn to Joy, Ludwig van Beethoven (1770-1827); adapt. Edward Hodges (1796-1867), alt.
THE SALUTATION

Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. +

All: And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Almighty God, unto whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love thee, and worthily magnify thy holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

THE PENITENTIAL RITE — Please kneel

Let us humbly confess our sins unto Almighty God.

Most merciful God,

All: We confess that we have sinned against thee in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved thee with our whole heart; We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.

For the sake of thy Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in thy will, and walk in thy ways, to the glory of thy Name. Amen.

The Celebrant pronounces the Absolution
Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who of his great mercy hath promised forgiveness of sins to all those who with hearty repentance and true faith turn unto him, have mercy upon you, + pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and bring you to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

KYRIE (Hymnal #710)

All sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

GLORIA IN EXCELSIS (Hymnal #713) — Please stand

Glory be to God on high,

All sing: And on earth peace, good will towards men.

We praise thee, we bless thee,

we worship thee, we glorify thee,

we give thanks to thee for thy great glory,

O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father Almighty.

O Lord, the only begotten Son, Jesus Christ;

O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,

that takest away the sins of the world,

have mercy upon us.

Thou that takest away the sins of the world,

receive our prayer.

Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father,

have mercy upon us.

For thou only art Holy;

Thou only art the Lord;

Thou only, O Christ,

with the Holy Ghost,

Art most high + in the glory of God the Father. Amen.
THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

The Lord be with you.

All: And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, who art always more ready to hear than we to pray, and art wont to give more than either we desire or deserve: Pour down upon us the abundance of thy mercy, forgiving us those things whereof our conscience is afraid, and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask, but through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord; who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All: Amen.

FIRST READING  Genesis 2:18-24 — Please be seated

A Reading from the book of Genesis:

Then the LORD God said, “It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a helper fit for him.” So out of the ground the LORD God formed every beast of the field and every bird of the air, and brought them to the man to see what he would call them; and whatever the man called every living creature, that was its name. The man gave names to all cattle, and to the birds of the air, and to every beast of the field; but for the man there was not found a helper fit for him. So the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall upon the man, and while he slept took one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh; and the rib which the LORD God had taken from the man he made into a woman and brought her to the man. Then the man said,

“This at last is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh;
she shall be called Woman,
because she was taken out of Man.”
Therefore a man leaves his father and his mother and clings to his wife, and they become one flesh.

The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

PSALM 128 — Sung by the choir

Happy are they all who fear the LORD, *
and who follow in his ways!

You shall eat the fruit of your labor; *
happiness and prosperity shall be yours.

Your wife shall be like a fruitful vine within your house, *
your children like olive shoots round about your table.

The man who fears the LORD *
shall thus indeed be blessed.

The LORD bless you from Zion, *
and may you see the prosperity of Jerusalem all the days of your life.

May you live to see your children's children; *
may peace be upon Israel.
SECOND READING  Hebrews 2:1-18

A Reading from the letter of Paul to the Hebrews:

Therefore we must pay the closer attention to what we have heard, lest we drift away from it. For if the message declared by angels was valid and every transgression or disobedience received a just retribution, how shall we escape if we neglect such a great salvation? It was declared at first by the Lord, and it was attested to us by those who heard him, while God also bore witness by signs and wonders and various miracles and by gifts of the Holy Spirit distributed according to his own will.

For it was not to angels that God subjected the world to come, of which we are speaking. It has been testified somewhere,

“What is man that you are mindful of him,
   or the son of man, that you care for him?
You made him for a little while lower than the angels,
   you have crowned him with glory and honor,
   putting everything in subjection under his feet.”

Now in putting everything in subjection to him, he left nothing outside his control. As it is, we do not yet see everything in subjection to him. But we see Jesus, who for a little while was made lower than the angels, crowned with glory and honor because of the suffering of death, so that by the grace of God he might taste death for every one. For it was fitting that he, for whom and by whom all things exist, in bringing many sons to glory, should make the pioneer of their salvation perfect through suffering. For he who sanctifies and those who are sanctified have all one origin. That is why he is not ashamed to call them brethren, saying,

“It will proclaim your name to my brethren,
   in the midst of the congregation I will praise you.”

And again,

“I will put my trust in him.”
And again,

“Here am I, and the children God has given me.”

Since therefore the children share in flesh and blood, he himself likewise partook of the same nature, that through death he might destroy him who has the power of death, that is, the devil, and deliver all those who through fear of death were subject to lifelong bondage. For surely it is not with angels that he is concerned but with the descendants of Abraham. Therefore he had to be made like his brethren in every respect, so that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make expiation for the sins of the people. For because he himself has suffered and been tempted, he is able to help those who are tempted.

The Word of the Lord.
All:  Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION — Please stand

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!
All sing:  Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!
If we love one another, God remains in us and his love is brought to perfection in us.
All sing:  Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!
THE HOLY GOSPEL  Mark 10:2-9

The Lord be with you.

All: And with thy spirit.

+ The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. Mark.

All: Glory be to thee, O Lord.

And Pharisees came up and in order to test him asked, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?” He answered them, “What did Moses command you?” They said, “Moses allowed a man to write a certificate of divorce, and to put her away.” But Jesus said to them, “For your hardness of heart he wrote you this commandment. But from the beginning of creation, ‘God made them male and female.’ ‘For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh.’ So they are no longer two but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, let not man put asunder.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise be to thee, O Christ.

SERMON – Please be seated

Fr. Carlos E. Expósito
I believe in one God,

All sing: The Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
   and of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ,
   the only-begotten Son of God,
   begotten of his Father before all worlds,
   God of God, Light of Light,
   very God of very God,
   begotten, not made,
   being of one substance with the Father;
   by whom all things were made;
who for us men and for our salvation
   came down from heaven,
   and was incarnate by the Holy Ghost
   of the Virgin Mary,
   and was made man;
and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered and was buried;
and the third day he rose again according to the Scriptures,
and ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of the Father;
and he shall come again, with glory,
   to judge both the quick and the dead;
whose kingdom shall have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Ghost, the Lord, and Giver of Life,
   who proceedeth from the Father and the Son;
   who with the Father and the Son together is worshipped
   and glorified;
Who spake by the Prophets.
And I believe one Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church;
I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins;
and I look for the resurrection of the dead,
+ and the life of the world to come. Amen.
Celebrant: Let us pray for the whole state of Christ’s Church and the world.

Today's Service is offered to the greater glory of God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, with special intention for thanksgiving for blessings received and for the untold numbers of Americans and Afghan people, who supported the American and NATO Forces, and remain in the countryside of Afghanistan hiding from the terrorists and waiting to be evacuated.

Reader: Lord in thy mercy.

People:  Hear our prayer

We pray for thy Holy Catholic Church throughout the world. We pray for the Anglican Communion and Justin, Archbishop of Canterbury; for the Episcopal Church and Michael, Presiding Bishop; Susan our Bishop; and Carlos our rector. We also pray for the clergy and people of St. Timothy’s in San Diego and for our Diocesan Institutions and organizations—Camp Stevens, RefugeeNet, the Mission to Seafarers, Vida Joven.

Reader: Lord in thy mercy.

People:  Hear our prayer

Father, we pray for peace throughout the world, especially in the Middle-East. We pray for Joe our President, the leaders of the nations, Gavin our Governor, and all those in authority.

Reader: Lord in thy mercy.

People:  Hear our prayer

We pray for our Armed Forces serving at home and abroad and for the family and friends who await their safe return. In this parish we pray for: Samuel, Jonathan, Sue, Mark, Alvin, William, Patrick, Dirk, Ethan, Kyle, Caelan, Noah and Peter. We also pray for the Officers, Crew and their families of the USS Cape St. George and the crew of USS Essex.

Reader: Lord in thy mercy.

People:  Hear our prayer.
We pray for this community, and all who live and work in this area, for our own families, and for our Parish family, that we may grow in faith and love. We pray for all prisoners and captives. We pray for the staff, the children and their families of All Saints’ Preschool and we pray for the members of Alcohol Anonymous. May they be blessed with healing and sobriety. We also pray for those who are unemployed or homeless.

Reader: Lord in thy mercy.
People: Hear our prayer

Lord, send the Holy Spirit, the comforter to all who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, and those who have asked for our prayers. We especially pray today for: Bernadette, Christine, Denise, Mrs. Tsui, Michael, Jack, Pamela, John, Ellen, Joan, Melanie, Preston, Grace, Randy, Bonnie, Howard, Delaney, Karen, Michelle, Eileen, Larry, Zisy, Amanda, Nell-Leone’s son-in-law Larry, Warren, Leslie, Joseph, Joyce and John. We also pray for those whose names are on the prayer chain in the church.

Reader: Lord in thy mercy.
People: Hear our prayer

Father, we pray for the souls of the faithful departed and for those who have died recently, especially Salustiano Machado, Robert Eikel, Mary Ellen Rollins, Eduardo Carbonell,

And those whose anniversaries occur at this time: Gary Tuttle, William C. Drennan, Daphne Savoury, John Devane, Renee Adams, Eva Dreyer, Emily Scotland, Bristol McHugh, Grant Robert Freese, Nick Moore.

Reader: Rest eternal grant to them O LORD +
People: And let light perpetual shine upon them.

Father we give thanks for the example and prayers of the ever Blessed Virgin Mary and all Thy saints, and now join them in offering our own prayers, petitions, and thanksgivings.

At this time additional petitions and thanksgivings may be said quietly or silently.
The celebrant concludes the Prayers.

Lord Jesus Christ, you said to your apostles, "Peace I give to you; my own peace I leave with you." Regard not our sins, but the faith of your Church, and give to us the peace and unity of that heavenly City, where with the Father and the Holy Spirit you live and reign, now and for ever.

All:   Amen.

PEACE – Please stand

The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

All:   And with thy Spirit.

Please stand and exchange a sign of the peace of Jesus Christ with your immediate neighbors by greeting one another and saying:

"Peace be with you."

OFFERTORY SENTENCE

Let us with gladness present the offerings and oblations of our life and labor to the Lord.
OFFERTORY ANTHEM — Please be seated

All Saints’ Choir

Draw Nigh and Take the Body of the Lord

Eric Thiman

Draw nigh and take the Body of the Lord,
And drink by faith the Blood for you outpoured.

Saved by His Body and hallowed by His Blood,
With souls refreshed, we render thanks to God.

Salvation’s Giver, Christ the only Son,
By his dear Cross and Blood the victory won.

Offered was He for greatest and for least,
Himself the Victim and Himself the Priest.

He feeds the hungry with the Bread of Heav’n,
And living streams to those who thirst are giv’n.

O Judge of all, our only Saviour Thou,
In this Thy feast of love, be with us now.
OFFERTORY HYMN — Please stand

Mit Freuden zart

Words: Johann Jakob Schütz (1640-1690); tr. Frances Elizabeth Cox (1812-1897),

Music: Mit Freuden zart, melody from “Une pastourelle gentille,” 1529; adapt. Psæaumes cinquantë de David, 1547, and Kirchengeseng darinnen die Heubtartickel des Christlichen Glaubens gefasset, 1566; harm. Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958), after Heinrich Reimann (19th cent.)
THE OFFERTORY PRAYER

Lord, accept the gifts thy Church offers thee with joy, since in fulfillment of thy will thy Son offered himself as a lamb without blemish for the life of the world. Grant this through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

LITURGY OF THE HOLY EUCHARIST — Please stand

Pray Brethren,
that this my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the Almighty Father.

All: May the Lord receive the sacrifice at thy hands,
to the praise and glory of His Name,
to our benefit and that of all His Holy Church.

EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

The Lord be with you.

All: And with thy spirit.

Lift up your hearts.

All: We lift them up unto the Lord.

Let us give thanks unto our Lord God.

All: It is meet and right so to do.

It is very meet, right, and our bounden duty, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto thee, O Lord, Holy Father, Almighty, everlasting God.

Who by water and the Holy Spirit hast made us a new people in Jesus Christ our Lord, to show forth thy glory in all the world.

Therefore with Angels and Archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious Name; ever more praising thee, and saying:
SANCTUS ET BENEDICTUS (Hymnal #711)

All sing: Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Hosts:
Heaven and earth are full of thy glory.
Glory be to thee, O Lord Most High.
+ Blessed is He that cometh in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION — Please kneel

All glory be to thee, O Lord our God, for that thou didst create heaven and earth, and didst make us in thine own image; and, of thy tender mercy, didst give thine only Son Jesus Christ to take our nature upon him, and to suffer death upon the cross for our redemption. He made there a full and perfect sacrifice for the whole world; and did institute, and in his holy Gospel command us to continue, a perpetual memory of that his precious death and sacrifice, until his coming again.

At the following words concerning the bread, the Celebrant is to hold it, or lay a hand upon it; and at the words concerning the cup, to hold or place a hand upon the cup and any other vessel containing wine to be consecrated.

For in the night in which he was betrayed, he took bread; and when he had given thanks to thee, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, “Take, eat, this is my Body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.”

Likewise, after supper, he took the cup; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, “Drink this, all of you; for this is my Blood of the New Covenant, which is shed for you, and for many, for the remission of sins. Do this, as oft as ye shall drink it, in remembrance of me.”

Wherefore, O Lord and heavenly Father, we thy people do celebrate and make, with these thy holy gifts which we now offer unto thee, the memorial thy Son hath commanded us to make; having in remembrance his blessed passion and precious death, his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension; and looking for his coming again with power and great glory.
And we most humbly beseech thee, O merciful Father, to hear us, and, with thy Word and Holy Spirit, to bless and sanctify these gifts of bread and wine, that they may be unto us the Body and Blood of thy dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ.

And we earnestly desire thy fatherly goodness to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, whereby we offer and present unto thee, O Lord, our selves, our souls and bodies. Grant, we beseech thee, that all who partake of this Holy Communion may worthily receive the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son Jesus Christ, and be filled with thy grace and heavenly benediction +; and also that we and all thy whole Church may be made one body with him, that he may dwell in us, and we in him; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord;

By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Ghost all honor and glory be unto thee, O Father Almighty, world without end.

All: Amen.

THE LORD’S PRAYER

And now, as our Savior Christ hath taught us, we are bold to say:

All sing: Our Father, who art in heaven,

hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.
THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Alleluia. Christ our Passover is Sacrificed for us;
All: Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

AGNUS DEI (Hymnal #712)

All sing: O Lamb of God,
that takest away the sins of the world,
have mercy upon us.
O Lamb of God,
that takest away the sins of the world,
have mercy upon us.
O Lamb of God,
that takest away the sins of the world,
grant us thy peace.

PRAYER OF HUMBLE ACCESS

All: We do not presume to come to this thy Table,
O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness,
but in thy manifold and great mercies.
We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs
under thy Table.
But thou art the same Lord whose property
is always to have mercy.
Grant us therefore, gracious Lord,
so to eat the flesh of thy dear Son Jesus Christ,
And to drink his blood,
that we may evermore dwell in him and he in us. Amen.
THE INVITATION

Behold the Lamb of God, +
behold Him that taketh away the sins of the world.

All: Lord I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof, but speak the word only, and my soul shall be healed.

All baptized Christians are invited to come forward for communion.
Those who are unable to receive communion, or do not yet receive, are invited to come forward for a blessing. To indicate that you wish to receive a blessing, please cross your arms over your chest rather than holding out your hands.

COMMUNION HYMN — Please kneel

BREAD OF HEAVEN

William D. Maclagan, 1875

1 Bread of heav'n, on thee we feed, For thy Flesh is meat indeed;
2 Vine of heav'n, thy Blood supplies This blest cup of sacrifice;

Ev'er may our souls be fed With this true and living Bread;
Lord, thy wounds our healing give, To thy cross we look and live:

Day by day with strength supplied, Thro' the life of him who died.
Jesus, may we ever be Graft-ed, root-ed, built in thee. Amen.

Josiah Conder, 1824, alt.
PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

I believe that Thou art truly present in the Holy Sacrament, and, since I cannot at this time receive communion,

I pray Thee to come into my heart.

I unite myself with Thee and embrace Thee with all my heart, my soul, and my mind.

Let nothing separate me from Thee; let me serve Thee in this life until, by Thy grace,

I come to Thy glorious kingdom and unending peace.

Amen.
POST COMMUNION PRAYER — Please kneel

Almighty and everliving God,

All: We most heartily thank Thee for that Thou dost feed us, in these Holy mysteries, with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of Thy Son our Savior Jesus Christ;

And dost assure us thereby of Thy favor and goodness towards us;

And that we are very members incorporate in the mystical body of Thy Son, the blessed company of all faithful people;

And are also heirs, through hope, of Thy everlasting kingdom.

And we humbly beseech Thee, O heavenly Father, so to assist us with Thy grace, that we may continue in that Holy fellowship, and do all such good works as Thou hast prepared for us to walk in;

Through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with Thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

BENEDICTION

The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the + Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you, and remain with you always.

All: Amen.
NOTICES – Please be seated

Birthday Prayer
Many happy returns of the day of thy birth,
May seasons of joy be given.
May God in his mercy prepare you on earth
For a beautiful birthday in Heaven. Amen.

Anniversary Prayer
O God, you have so consecrated the covenant of marriage that in it is represented the spiritual unity between Christ and his Church: Send therefore your blessing upon these your servants, that they may love, honor, and cherish each other in faithfulness and patience, in wisdom and true godliness, that their home may be a haven of blessing and peace;
through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen
The Angel of the Lord brought the tidings to Mary:
All: And she conceived by the Holy Ghost.

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee.
Blessed art thou amongst women,
and blessed is the fruit of thy womb Jesus.
Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners,
now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

Behold the handmaid of the Lord:
All: Be it unto me according to thy word.

The Hail Mary is repeated as before...

And the Word was made flesh.
All: And dwelt among us.

The Hail Mary is repeated as before...

Pray for us, O holy Mother of God.
All: That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray.

We beseech thee O Lord, pour thy grace into our hearts: That as we have known the incarnation of thy son Jesus Christ by the message of an angel, so by His cross and passion + we may be brought to the glory of His resurrection. Through the same Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

THE BLESSING OF THE ANIMALS

Fr. Carlos will be blessing your animals by the statue of St. Francis in the courtyard immediately following the Mass.

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.
All: And with thy spirit
Celebrant: Let us pray.

Collect for St Francis

Most high, omnipotent good Lord, grant your people grace to renounce gladly the vanities of this world; that, following the way of blessed Francis, we may for love of you delight in your whole creation with perfectness of joy. O God, you have made us and all living things. You are even more wonderful than what you have made. We thank you for giving us these pets who bring us joy. As you take care of us, so also we ask your help that we might take care of those who trust us to look after them. By doing this, we share in your own love for all creation. We ask this in Jesus' name.

All: Amen.

THE BLESSING OF EACH PET (INDIVIDUALLY)

The blessing is usually done with the sprinkling of water over the animal and the owner.

"N., (name of animal) may you be blessed in the Name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. May you and (name of owner) enjoy life together and find joy with the God who created you." Amen.

PRAYER REQUEST FROM FR. CARLOS

Fr. Carlos asks for your prayers for the people of Cuba. Both he and his wife, together with thousands of other Cubans living in the U.S. and other countries, are concerned with the Cuban people’s safety, lack of food and medical supplies, economic insecurity, and the repression that those who protested in the streets are being subjected to by the Cuban totalitarian regime.

BLESSING OF THE ANIMALS

This Sunday October 3 in recognition of the Feast Day of St. Francis of Assisi, (Monday, October 4) the patron saint of animals and the environment, Fr. Carlos will be blessing animals in the Courtyard by the statue of St. Francis after mass at 11:15am. All are welcome with their pets.

CHRISTIAN FORMATION

SUNDAY, October 10 at 11:30am
PARISH HALL

Have you ever wondered how the Book of Common Prayer originated? Who were the historical figures instrumental through the ages from the 16th century to the present day in formulating this Book? Well Gary Nicolosi, Episcopal Priest and Lawyer, has written “A Concise History of the Book of Common Prayer—An Appreciation of Anglicanism” to answer those questions and many more.

Gary Nicolosi is the author of hundreds of articles on Anglicanism, parish ministry and spirituality, including his book “SoulFire: Preaching the Church Message in a Secular, Postmodern World”.

As a former member of St. Bart’s, Poway during his rectorship, I can attest to his fine writing and the depth of his scholarship.

Please join Fr. Carlos during the coffee hour again this Sunday as he leads us through Concise History—each lesson/chapter includes questions to guide group discussion and to provoke serious personal reflection.

Copies of this book are available for $14.00 in the Parish Office during the week and on Sundays.

A Musical Journey
Join the Greater San Diego Chamber Orchestra for a musical journey. Experience Scotland with the Four Scottish Dances by Malcolm Arnold, Italy with the Italian Symphony by Felix Mendelssohn, Poland with the Polonaise by Pyotr Tchaikovsky, and the Steppes of Central Asia by Alexander Borodin. Also in the program are scrumptious French songs by Renaldo Hahn and Camille Saint Saens.

The concert is directed by Dr. Angela Yeung and features mezzo-soprano Mary Boles Allen.

Mezzo-soprano Mary Boles-Allen is a core chorister at San Diego Opera, the alto soloist at La Jolla

Presbyterian Church, and just completed her sixth year as the alto for High Holy Days at Temple Solel, Encinitas. Previously she sang with Musica Vitale, Lyric Opera San Diego, and the San Diego Master Chorale. With the San Diego Symphony, she sang alto solos in performances of Mendelssohn's Elijah (2nd Seraphim) and Mendelssohn Midsummer Night's Dream (2nd Fairy). Other appearances have included second soprano, mezzo, and alto solos in choral masterworks from Bach to Honegger. Her operatic work in local concerts has featured art songs and arias by 18th to 20th century composers.

Fall Has Arrived

Covid-19 continues to impact us all, but most especially those of lower income. Many have had the chance to continue in their housing situation at greatly reduced rates during the pandemic. Now, those same folks face having to pay full rent despite the pandemic continuing with the delta variant. You can help alleviate some of their financial woes by donating non-perishable foods here at church, which continues to partner with the Salvation Army Food Bank. Please add one or more items to our black wagon just inside the church door on Sundays, or bring them to the Parish office.

Thank you in advance for your generosity . . .

IN MEMORIAM
Robert “Bob” Eikel

Robert E. “Bob” Eikel died on Wednesday, September 15 at home in San Diego.

Bob and his wife, Mary were for many years faithful members of All Saints’.

They came to All Saints’ in the mid 70's, Bob was an active Vestry member, Facilities chairman and sidesman. He was instrumental in Parish fundraising to retrofit the Parish Hall when the city said "retrofit for earthquakes or tear it down". Both Bob and Mary were socially active in Parish life until the mid 2000’s (2004, I think) when they moved to St. Michael's to be closer to family.

My thanks to Kay Phillips for her research on the Eikels when they were parishioners of All Saints’.

Below is the obituary which Bob Eikel’s son sent me. Please note the date and time of the funeral service at the end of the obituary.

Bob was born on April 15, 1940 in Sherman, Texas, the only child of Edwin Eikel and Virginia Durham Eikel. As a child he would look out his bedroom window to see the trains of the Texas and Pacific Railroad running behind the back yard, sparking a life-long love of railways and railroading.

In 1943 his family moved to Houston, where Bob grew up and his family were charter members of St. Martin’s Episcopal Church. He graduated from Lamar High School, then studied for two years at Washington and Lee University in Virginia before graduating from the University of Texas in 1962.

One of Bob’s high school friends introduced him to his wife, Mary Althouse, in 1964, when they were both graduate students in Washington D.C. After Bob served a brief stint in the Army, they married in June 1967 and moved to New York.

Bob and Mary moved to San Diego in 1970 for a temporary work assignment, expected to last six months. They soon realized that they didn’t want to move back to New York and the short term visitors became long term residents, living in La Jolla for fifty more years while Mary practiced law and Bob built residential developments throughout San Diego County.

Bob was an avid railfan. He served on the board of the San Diego Railway Museum and traveled with equally enthusiastic friends (and sometimes with less enthusiastic family) to see and ride steam trains as near as Campo and as far away as Inner Mongolia. Special birthdays were marked with unique train trips to Los Angeles, Tecate, and elsewhere.

Later in life, Bob started rowing after his children took up the sport in high school. He became a dedicated oarsman and member of the Mission Bay Rowing Association and San Diego Rowing Club, and could be found each spring volunteering at the San Diego Crew Classic. Bob’s rowing adventures took him to Vermont, Boston, and as far as Frankfurt, Germany, where in his seventies he spent a month studying German and rowing at Frankfurter Rudergesellschaft.

Bob was for many years a faithful member of All Saints Episcopal Church in Hillcrest, and later of St. Michael’s in Carlsbad and St. James in La Jolla.

Bob was gregarious and talkative, and many friends remember his wit and humor. He was always curious to learn about new subjects and new people, and his acquaintances quickly became his friends. Above all, Bob was generous to his family, friends, neighbors, and community. He was well aware of his many blessings and shared them freely.

He is survived by his wife of 54 years, Mary, his children Catherine and Robert, and six grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at St. James By-the-Sea in La Jolla at noon on Saturday, October 9; the burial will be at a later date in Houston.
