

Sally Tsui Wong-Avery

2009 Ellis Island Medal of Honor recipient

Congratulations, Sally
We love you and are very proud of you!
Love, Your Family

Congratulation to our Sally Wong-Avery on this 2009 Ellis Island Medal of Honor award. Sally has been an active Board Member of our non-profit Chinese Community organization for over 25 years. She truly practices her motto, "Give and not count the cost" with "Give and not ask for any reward." We are proud of her. [The members and Board of Directors of the Chinese Consolidated Benevolent Association of San Diego.]

Dr. David Ho and his colleagues at the Aaron Diamond AIDS Research Center salute Sally Tsui Wong-Avery for her myriad contributions to society and for the spirit of caring and compassion that informs her life.

*"40 years ago Sally came to San Diego, and immediately became a member of All Saints' Episcopal Church. Her whole family has been wonderful and much loved members of our church. Since I have been the Rector I have seen the wonderful work Sally does in and for the Chinese community. I admire her work, enthusiasm and energy."
—Fr. Tony Noble*

The teachers at the Chinese School of San Diego would like to congratulate Principal Sally Wong-Avery for receiving the Ellis Island Medal of Honor. Thank you for your leadership and your passion for teaching; everyone is very proud of you at the school!

The staff of the Chinese Service Center of San Diego salutes Sally T. Wong-Avery for her many years of dedicated services and contributions to the Asian community.
